DETAILED ACTION

The examiner in this application is changed from Sharon Howard to Jyothsna Venkat.

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Claims 1-59 are pending in the application and the status of the claims are as follows:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 40, 42, 47, 49, 57 and 59 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. This is a new matter rejection.

4. There is no support in the specification for the expression” non-waxed new paper”. The support in the patent 5,840, 249(‘249) are for “ virgin vegetable matter, waste waxed paper, and new waxed paper” at col.4, lat paragraph and for non-waxed waste paper at col.5, line 33. There is no support in the patent for “ wherein the paraffin wax is food grade”.

5. In accordance with MPEP 714.02, applicants should specifically point out support for any amendments made to the disclosure.

Art Unit: 1615

6. Claims 41, 48, and 57-59 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The following reasons apply:

Claims 41, 48 and 58 recite, "Wherein the wax is obtained from paraffin wax". Paraffin wax itself is a wax, so how can the wax be obtained from wax? Additionally, the paper is coated with wax to form wax paper. Therefore detailed explanation is requested with respect to wherein the wax is obtained from paraffin wax.

Claims 57-59 lack antecedent bases with respect to "preservative". Note that claim 53 recites "product".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 38-41, 43-48, and 51-58 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the combination of U. S. Patents 3,822,178('178) and 3,655,400('400).

The instant application is claiming a process, preservative for organic matter and a decomposition product comprising cellulose and wax and the product is filtered through a very fine filter and further comprising:

1. potassium sorbate
2. citric acid

Art Unit: 1615

3. non-ionic emulsifier

The patent '178 teaches process for repulping waxed paper using non-ionic emulsifier where in the paper comprises wax and cellulose as claimed and passing it through very fine filter. See the claims . The difference between the patent and the instant application is that the patent does not disclose adding citric acid to lower the PH and adding potassium sorbate to the product. One of ordinary skill in the art with a scientific knowledge would add a weak acid like citric acid so that PH is 6.5 or lower. The patent '400 is cited to show that in order to have shelf or product stability potassium sorbate is added. See col.1, last paragraph.

Accordingly it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made to prepare the product of '178 and add potassium sorbate and add citric acid. The motivation to add potassium sorbate stems the teachings of patent '400 that this compound prevents mold development and shelf instability. One of ordinary skill in the art having scientific knowledge would add weak acid like citric acid to lower the Ph. One of ordinary skill in the art would have reasonable amount of success by taking the product of '178 and adding potassium sorbate so that the product can be used as a preservative and decomposition resistant product because potassium sorbate when added has the advantage of preventing mold development and shelf instability. This is a prima facie case of obviousness.
